Project Management and the Arts

Guest Speaker: Aaron Spjute

Aaron will share valuable insights about how project management related skills go beyond traditional jobs, get us thinking outside the box and broaden our horizons as we consider the power of project management in non-traditional careers.

Aaron earned a BA in Theatre and Media Arts from BYU and an MFA in Staging Shakespeare from the University of Exeter, UK. He is excited to be directing not just one play this season, but all of the Bard's great works in The Complete Works of William Shakespeare: Abridged.

Aaron Spjute, is currently directing – The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged) at the Woodward Shakespeare Festival every Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at Woodward Park until September 19th beginning at 8:00 p.m.

Meeting Co-Sponsored by...
