BUILDING EFFECTIVE TEAMS

Tools To Connect People To Goals – Dr. David Fuentes

CCVC-PMI is excited to kick-off the new-year, new-look 2019 Fresno Dinner Meeting series with Dr. David Fuentes, PharmD, MSOL, SHRM-CP, at the January Fresno Dinner Meeting. In addition to serving as the Executive Associate Dean of Pharmacy at California Health Sciences University , Dr. Fuentes is an Executive Professional Coach & Organizational Health Consultant who is certified in Gallup Strengths-based Development.

Leading project teams to achieve targeted outcomes is a challenge. Building an effective team requires the leader to possess a mix emotional intelligence and adaptive communications. Dr. Fuentes will lead an interactive discussion in these vital facilitation skills. Through hands-on exercises, meeting attendees will identify their own strengths & communication style, recognize the same in others, and understand how to use this knowledge to connect the individuals together as an effective team.
